Is your goal to attend a U.S. University? Get an Edge on the competition for College Admissions this summer.

TOEFL Prep Institute

Experience full language immersion at a top tier U.S. research university. Improve your confidence in reading, writing, and listening skills on a daily basis, while making new friends, and experiencing a slice of U.S. university life.

The Emory Pre-College TOEFL Prep Institute is offered to high-intermediate and advanced students. This three-week course reviews the four basic language skills tested on the TOEFL: reading, listening, speaking and writing. An introduction to the overall format of the test will be covered, including types of questions, answer selection strategies and practice testing.

All students will attend College 101 most weekday afternoons. These sessions are designed to help high school students prepare for their college experience. Coupled with their academic work, College 101 sessions will help students understand the U.S. college admissions process.

Features

• 18 hours of classroom instruction and practice per week.
• Conversation Partner Sessions with English speaking students
• TOEFL™ iBT specific skills and strategies
• TOTAL Academic and Residential English Language immersion
• Students supervised at all times by experienced and trained Residential Life Staff
• Transportation provided to local Atlanta TOEFL test centers
